

Minister for Housing and Green Leader Casey O'Connor with United Nations Human Rights Medalist for 2011 (Tasmania) Anna Crotty Parliament House 2 December 2011
"This champion of Human Rights over the past thirty years has been well recognized within Tasmania. Anna Crotty is a person well respected within the law fraternity and the community. She is a great Tasmanian'.

Governor General Quentin Bryce honors our very own Anna Crotty for her life time dedication to Human Rights in Tasmania at morning tea at Government House. "People such as Anna are the true unsung characters of our communities who are the silent but effective achievers. Tasmanians have every right to be proud of her."
